A NEW HOTEL DU VIN,

Following in the footsteps of the British Hotel du Vin trend, this renewed and redecorated old people's home is both a wine bar and small hotel. The wallpapers and furnishings are reminiscent of the 1950s, 60s and 70s, and each of their 29 rooms has a unique vintage piece of furnishing. The white bench in the wine bar (that double's as the breakfast room) is an original bench from New York's JFK airport, found via a second hand specialist. Thursday and Friday nights are busiest for a drink. Rooms are from 89 € Fr-Su and from 129 the rest of the week, breakfast included.
